

Causal Uncertainty in Negligence Law

The Centre for Legal Governance presents special guest speaker:

Ernest Weinrib, Cecil A. Wright Professor of Law

Ernest J. Weinrib, B.A. (Toronto) 1965, Ph.D. (Classics) (Harvard) 1968, LL.B. (Toronto) 1972, is Cecil A. Wright Professor of Law. Professor Weinrib was appointed Assistant Professor of Law in 1972 at the University of Toronto and was promoted to Associate Professor of Law in 1975 and Professor of Law in 1981. From 1986 to 1988 he held a Killam Research Fellowship and was awarded a University of Toronto Connaught Senior Fellowship for 1990-91. He is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada.

Professor Weinrib's scholarship and teaching have concentrated on Tort Law and Legal Theory. His publications include many books, articles and papers in these fields, published in Canada and abroad. His work has been the subject of symposia in the Iowa Law Review and in The Harvard Journal of Law and Public Policy. He was named the Cecil A. Wright Professor of Law in 2000.

Thursday 22 August - Macquarie Theatre

4pm - 5pm

Centre for Legal Governance:

The Centre for Legal Governance provides a platform for research into legal governance and regulatory problems facing governments, businesses and communities in the new world order and contributes to the development of ethically informed legal and social policy.

clg.mq.edu.au

Macquarie Law School:

Macquarie Law School was established in 1972 and has a rich history in legal education, scholarship and community engagement. A hallmark of all of our programs is a commitment to the interdisciplinary study of law, which is designed to foster a sound understanding of legal doctrine as well as an awareness of the role of law in society and a developed sense of social responsibility.

law.mq.edu.au

