

Philosophical Foundations of the Law of Equity

King's College London

Thursday 29 and Friday 30 June 2017

We are pleased to announce this exciting forthcoming conference, generously supported by the British Academy, the Centre for Private Law Harvard Law School, OUP and the Dickson Poon School of Law, KCL.

The conference will bring together many world leading scholars on the Law of Equity, with the aim of exploring the fundamental structure of Equity, the values it instantiates and its relationship to other areas of law. The papers will range in subject matter from underlying themes like Equity's distinctive perspective on liability in private law, to the scope of its 'fusion' with common law, and the extent to which various doctrines still reflect the values that motivated the development of Equity

To register for the conference, and get access to the papers, please visit our webpage: <http://www.kcl.ac.uk/law/newsevents/eventrecords/philosophical-foundations-of-equity-law.aspx>

Papers will be available to registered participants two weeks before the event. Please note that speakers will not present their papers, and the sessions will be devoted solely to discussion.

There will be a modest registration fee to cover the cost of lunch and refreshments on both days. Spaces are limited; please register early to avoid disappointment.
